

`python_code_example_SV600.py`

The examples will show how to do the following things:

- Capture a sound image and save the image
- Capture the video stream and beamform data to create your own video with sound intensity overlay
- Creating a measurement and subscribing to it
- Creating an event and subscribing to it